

ELP ONLINE VIDEOS

Pre-recorded and ready when you are!

Learning Stories

Free to view

7 part video series exploring the background, concept and construction of Learning Stories.

1.45 hours $30.00

Learning Stories are a powerful tool to support positive learner identities, they also illuminate our contexts and relationships.

3 parts: $45.00

Explore what learning might look like for children as teachers think deeply about children's learning lives.

1.15 hours $30.00

Hear from Principal, Tara O'Neill as she shares her journey with Learning Stories in a school setting.

2 hours: $30.00

An opportunity to explore what progress looks like within the context of our socio-cultural curriculum

1.5 hours $30.00

Learning Stories are a powerful tool to support positive learner identities, they also illuminate our contexts and relationships.

1.5 hours: $30.00

Is it possible to write empowering Learning Stories contained inside the margins of one page?

1 hour $30.00

This presentation will explore how Learning Stories are used with adults in multiple settings.

1.45 hours: $30.00

Portfolios are an ideal opportunity to make learning progress visible not only to mokopuna, but to the wider whānau and kaiako.

1.20 hours $30.00

Gain a deeper understanding of curriculum content and practices related to mana and kaitiakitanga.

1.45 hours: $30.00

Language gives us identity; identity gives us power; with empowerment language can be protected.

1.5 hours $30.00

Stories of Interest (planning stories) is an approach that retrospectively documents group interests and tells 'the big story.'

1.20 hours $30.00

Narrative & teacher inquiry provide a foundation for contextualizing the writing of Learning Stories in Spanish and English.

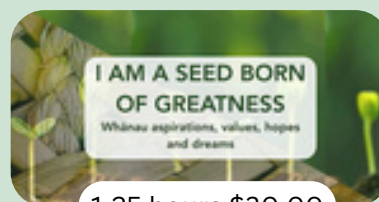

Free to view

A collaboration of how writing Learning Stories has impacted our teacher practice in our Kindergarten & School.

1 hour $30.00

Exploring Te Ara Poutama, a guiding document founded on a pūrākau Māori about the origins of knowledge.

1.25 hours $30.00

Whānau (family) aspirations, hopes and dreams.

Leadership & Curriculum

2 hours: $30.00

Focus on a sense of belonging and wellbeing for individual tamaiti, inside a community of learners who care deeply for each other.

1 hour: $30.00

The principles of sustainable leadership; sharing practical ways in which this might be achieved in an early childhood setting.

2 hours: $30.00

Teachers' identity stories of belonging using teacher identity portfolios as a pedagogical tool.

5 parts: $40.00

Creating opportunities for mokopuna to explore and engage in a range of creative learning experiences in your place.

1.45 hours: $30.00

Strengthen & stretch children's working theories, resisting the temptation to jump to a seemingly right answer.

1.20 hours $30.00

A strong foundation to ensure that the notions listed in the NELP are woven through the fabric of your setting,

1.5 hours $30.00

Exploring ways to help kaiako stay connected, with love underpinning our assessment and teaching practices.

Wellbeing

1 hour $30.00

The wellbeing of each child is interdependent with the wellbeing of their kaiako, parents and whānau.

2 hours $30.00

Reawaken your love for this profession and remind the world just how awesome Early Childhood Teaching is!

1.5 hours $30.00

Fostering a positive attitude helps us to lift our gaze to the richness of being a Te Whāriki-grounded centre.

Environments

1.20 hours $30.00

Exploring the effects of adventurous play on children's image of themselves as competent and confident learners.

Free to view

The diverse threads of learning kaiako and tamariki at Greerton ELC embark on every time seatbelts are buckled in, ready for adventure.

2 hours: $30.00

Are our children experiencing enough of the great outdoors?

1 hour: $30.00

Shaking and waking the third teacher (the environment) when responding to children's agency, interests and strengths.

2 hours: $30.00

Creating a culture of inclusion and diversity to thrive, exploring new forms of kinship, which are expansive and generative.

Infants & Toddlers

1.20 hours: $30.00

Laying the foundations for self regulation and resilience in infants and toddlers

1 hour: $30.00

Only once a child's basic needs have been met that they are then content to play and freely explore their environment.

1.20 hour $30.00

Finding the golden thread. Infants and Toddlers are born ready to make sense of their world.

1.45 hours $30.00

Teachers who listen with their entire being recognise that our children's fondest wish is to be known.

Culturally responsive practice

Free to view

Series of Waiata videos. All free to view and share

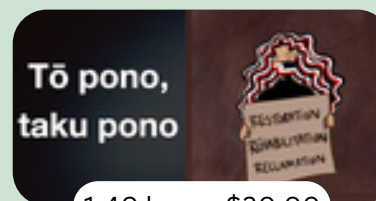

1 hr Free to view

The evolution of culturally-responsive practice at Intercultural Child and Family Centre's two locations.

15 min $10.00

Planning curriculum around learning that is rooted in the unique history, environment and culture of a place has many benefits for tamariki.

1.40 hours $30.00

How the whakapapa of our education system continues to impact our role as kaiako in ECE today.

1 hour $30.00

Exploring Te Ara Poutama, a guiding document founded on a pūrākau Māori about the origins of knowledge.