

ELP ONLINE VIDEOS

Pre-recorded and ready when you are!

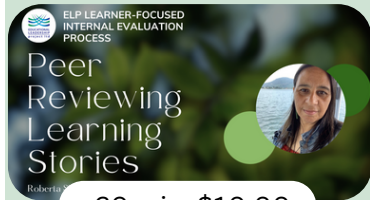

Workshops for rent, or membership available for only $10 per month per person.

Learning Stories

7 part video series exploring the background, concept and construction of Learning Stories.

Free to view

Deepening & sharpening the analysis through feedback will help to strengthen & grow the Learning Stories in your place.

20 min: $10.00

An opportunity to explore what progress looks like within the context of our socio-cultural curriculum

2 hours: $30.00

Is it possible to write empowering Learning Stories contained inside the margins of one page?

1.5 hours: $30.00

Portfolios are an ideal opportunity to make learning progress visible not only to mokopuna, but to the wider whānau and kaiako.

1.45 hours: $30.00

Language gives us identity; identity gives us power; with empowerment language can be protected.

1.45 hours: $30.00

Learning Stories are a powerful tool to support positive learner identities, they also illuminate our contexts and relationships.

1.45 hours $30.00

Hear from Principal, Tara O'Neill as she shares her journey with Learning Stories in a School setting.

1.15 hours $30.00

Learning Stories are a powerful tool to support positive learner identities, they also illuminate our contexts and relationships.

1.5 hours $30.00

This presentation will explore how Learning Stories are used with adults in multiple settings.

1 hour $30.00

Gain a deeper understanding of curriculum content and practices related to mana and kaitiakitanga.

1.20 hours $30.00

Stories of Interest (planning stories) is an approach that retrospectively documents group interests and tells 'the big story.'

1.5 hours $30.00

Think like a lightbulb!

This workshop considers ways Kaiako intentionally nurture the brain children will have for their lifetime.

2 hours: $30.00

Environments

1.20 hours $30.00

Exploring the effects of adventurous play on children's image of themselves as competent and confident learners.

Free to view

The diverse threads of learning kaiako and tamariki at Greerton ELC embark on every time seatbelts are buckled in, ready for adventure.

2 hours: $30.00

Are our children experiencing enough of the great outdoors?

1 hour: $30.00

Shaking and waking the third teacher (the environment) when responding to children's agency, interests and strengths.

2 hours: $30.00

Creating a culture of inclusion and diversity to thrive, exploring new forms of kinship, which are expansive and generative.

Internal Evaluation package

PACKAGE $60.00

Includes hardcopy handbook, suite of videos and digital examples. Only $60!

Wellbeing

1 hour $30.00

The wellbeing of each child is interdependent with the wellbeing of their kaiako, parents and whānau.

2 hours $30.00

Reawaken your love for this profession and remind the world just how awesome Early Childhood Teaching is!

1.5 hours $30.00

Fostering a positive attitude helps us to lift our gaze to the richness of being a Te Whāriki-grounded centre.

1.20 hours $30.00

Narrative & teacher inquiry provide a foundation for contextualizing the writing of Learning Stories in Spanish and English.

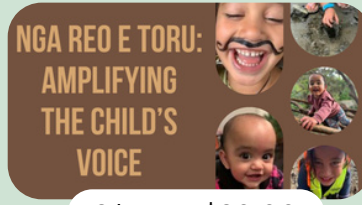

Free to view

A collaboration of how writing Learning Stories has impacted our teacher practice in our Kindergarten & School.

2 hours: $30.00

What a journey we have all been on with our Learning Stories in Aotearoa, and nothing exemplifies this more than Kei tua o te Pa

2 hours: $30.00

What if children could tell you what they were learning? What if they could step you through their thinking thinking...

Leadership & Curriculum

2 hours: $30.00

Focus on a sense of belonging and wellbeing for individual tamaiti, inside a community of learners who care deeply for each other.

1 hour $30.00

Exploring Te Ara Poutama, a guiding document founded on a pūrākau Māori about the origins of knowledge.

1 hour: $30.00

The principles of sustainable leadership; sharing practical ways in which this might be achieved in an early childhood setting.

1.2 hours $30.00

Whānau (family) aspirations, hopes and dreams.

2 hours: $30.00

Teachers' identity stories of belonging using teacher identity portfolios as a pedagogical tool.

1.20 hours $30.00

A strong foundation to ensure that the notions listed in the NELP are woven through the fabric of your setting,

5 parts: $40.00

Creating opportunities for mokopuna to explore and engage in a range of creative learning experiences in your place.

1.5 hours $30.00

Exploring ways to help kaiako stay connected, with love underpinning our assessment and teaching practices.

1.45 hours: $30.00

Strengthen & stretch children's working theories, resisting the temptation to jump to a seemingly right answer.

20 min: $10.00

Explore ways to show regard for the NELP in your Internal Evaluation process.

GROWING MATHEMATICAL HABITS OF MIND

With Roskill South Kindergarten

2 hours: $30.00

Learning Dispositions such as curiosity, creativity, problem-solving, courage etc are vital habits of mind that support learners succeed.

Infants & Toddlers

On my own, with your help

1.20 hours: $30.00

Laying the foundations for self regulation and resilience in infants and toddlers

Caregiving as Curriculum

1 hour: $30.00

Only once a child's basic needs have been met that they are then content to play and freely explore their environment.

Infant and Toddler Learning Journeys: Finding the Golden Thread

1.20 hours: $30.00

Finding the golden thread. Infants and Toddlers are born ready to make sense of their world.

A FOCUS ON INFANT & TODDLER AKO:

Are you listening, can you hear?
Are you looking, can you see?

1.45 hours $30.00

Teachers who listen with their entire being recognise that our children's fondest wish is to be known.

FREE TO BE ME: Nurturing Agency & Identity in Infants & Toddlers

2 hours: $30.00

Look at how environment and kaiako practice play a part in the infant's and the toddler's growing agency.

Culturally responsive practice

WHAKAPAPA FOUNDATION, PROCESS & POTENTIAL

1 hour: $20.00

For Tangata Whenua, tamariki are a continuation of whakapapa which extends back to the beginnings of space and time themselves.

WAIATA SERIES

Free to view

Series of Waiata videos. All free to view and share

CULTURALLY RESPONSIVE PRACTICE at intercultural child & family centres

1 hr Free to view

The evolution of culturally-responsive practice at Intercultural Child and Family Centre's two locations.

EXPLORING NGA TOI TO DEVELOP LITERACY AND CULTURAL KNOWLEDGE

15 min $10.00

Planning curriculum around learning that is rooted in the unique history, environment and culture of a place has many benefits for tamariki.

Tō pono, taku pono

1.40 hours $30.00

How the whakapapa of our education system continues to impact our role as kaiako in ECE today.

I te timatanga, ko te pūrākau It starts with a story

1 hour $30.00

Exploring Te Ara Poutama, a guiding document founded on a pūrākau Māori about the origins of knowledge.

He purapura i ruia mai i Rangiatea e kore e ngaro A seed sown in Rangiatea will never be lost

1.5 hours $30.00

As we contribute to the survival of our people, our roles and responsibilities as Māori are specific and defined.

Te āhuetanga o te tamaiti. The learning child

2 hours: $30.00

Wrapping assessment in a Te Ao Māori cloak of wisdom and learning dispositions